CHARDONNAY

2022 DELAIRE GRAFF – ‘BANGHOEK RESERVE’ CHARDONNAY	720
PER GLASS	145
from stellenbosch hillside vineyards. handpicked, whole berry pressed, fermented and matured in 40% new french oak barrels for a period of 10 months. no bâtonnage or malolactic fermentation took place, in order to retain freshness. the wine is elegant with layered nuances of vanilla, peaches and honeycomb. a hint of minerality adds to a lingering finish.
2016 DELAIRE GRAFF – ‘BANGHOEK RESERVE’ CHARDONNAY	1 720
2022 DELAIRE GRAFF – ‘TERRACE BLOCK’ CHARDONNAY	1 650
PER GLASS	420
as complex and diverse as the site from which it originates, the delaire graff terraced block chardonnay is the ultimate expression of terroir. contoured and sloped as an amphitheatre, the vineyard captures the vast flavour spectrum from varying exposure to the vibrant african sun. handpicked and whole bunch pressed, matured in 40% new french oak barrels for 10 months, this wine is classically crafted. an expressive bouquet of smoky floral notes lies within the alluring subtlety of peach and citrus. a spicy minerality remains a refined reminiscence of the sites rich soil, while a crisp acidity contrasts with vivacity.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

LAURENCE GRAFF RESERVE

This is our flagship red wine produced from grapes only from our estate. It is a barrel selection by our cellar master of the 5 best barrels of our Cabernet Sauvignon in the cellar – this is a rigorous and meticulous process each year. The wine was matured in 80% new French oak barrels for a period of 20 months. The nose is characterized by freshness and spice, vanilla pod, dark chocolate and hay aromas. Silky and smooth on entry, the wine has a flinty minerality with subtle tannins, length and persistence. The flavour profile is dominated by tangy, ripe blackberries, almost over-ripe berries together with brambles and cassis – classic flavours expected in a top-quality claret.

SAKE

sake is a japanese alcohol that is unique in its own special way. the japanese legal name for the drink is seishu. sake is made from rice, water, koji (rice mould) that's fermented in the presence of fungus and yeast.

sake can be served chilled, at room temperature or warm. sake is traditionally served in small cups called "ochoko" or "sakazuki". before taking a sip, it's customary to say "kanpai" (cheers) and make eye contact with your fellow drinkers. it is a 'soft rule' that one should never pour one's own sake. it's customary for someone else at the table to pour for you. there are many different sake grades. in essence, the more rice is milled, the cleaner, lighter and more fragrant the sake will be.

JUNMAI

contains pure sake and no brewer's alcohol is added to it. no additional starch or sugar is added to the alcohol. junmai-shu uses seimai buai. seimai buai (rice polishing ratio) is a figure indicating the extent to which brown rice (genmai) becomes white rice (hakumai).

HAKUSHIKA (YAMADANISHIKI) 50ml 100 250ML 500 300ml btl 600
brewed with the best of all sake rice varieties, locally-produce hyogo prefecture yamadanishika, this sake exudes the character and taste like no other. excellent for pairing with fine seafood, fine beef, soup and simmered dishes

HUKUSURU NISHIKA SAKE 50ml 900 250ml 4 500 720ml btl 12 960
this beautiful and exceptionally full-bodied sake is the result ten-year endeavor to create a one-of-a-kind rice strain: yamada-nishiki ["the king of the rice"]. this rice strain is the first successful crossbreed of yamadaho and wataribune in 70 years. the brew is luxurious, full of lovely floral aromas, yet delicately refined. enjoy the elegance of refreshing floral notes of jasmine and orange blossom and savor a hint of vanilla sweetness in the extra-long finish.

HONJOZO

uses sake rice which has a seimai buai. the sake is made by adding brewer's alcohol. the sake a light and smooth body and flavour. it also makes the aroma of the drink distinct and easily identified. the honjozo-shu is ideally served warm.

SADO NO ONIGOROSHI 50ml 500 250ml 2 500 1800ml btl 18 000 premium sake with a high degree of rice polishing up to 60% and added alcohol. It has a clean and dry flavour profile.

SHŌCHŪ

shōchū is a traditional japanese distilled spirit that is similar to other distilled spirits like vodka, whiskey, or brandy but has its own unique characteristics and production methods.

TAKARA MUGI 50ml 120 250ml 600 500ml btl 1 200
100% barley, single-distillation shochu. this process allows for great complexity and more influences from the source material— savoury notes of salty, grilled bread or raw buckwheat with brown banana and hints of raspberry and strawberry.

JUNMAI GINJO

made with rice, of which 40% is milled, while 60% retain their original size. it has a wonderful aroma, and has a delicate and light flavour.

KINPAKU HOKUSETSU 50ml 150 250ml 750 1800ml 5 400 unique for its gold leaf flakes, made of top tier polished rice. with a display of luxury. often associated with special occasions for its delicate and elegant flavours, which are smooth and refined.

DASSAI 23 50ml 1 300 250ml 6 500 720ml 18 720
dassai challenged themselves to brew the ultimate junmai daiginjo as their flagship product. the result? dassai "23," a sake with yamadanishiki rice polished down to 23%, which is a pretty high polish for a flagship product. their hard work gives us a sake with an enticing aroma and a honey-esque sweetness that flows over the palate like a gentle waterfall.

DAIGINJO

it too uses a rice mash made with sake rice that includes milled rice in a percentage between 35%-50%. this alcohol is high on fragrance and has a full body, delicate taste and a brief tail.

HOKUSETSU DAIGINJO 50ml 280 250ml 1 400 1 800ml 10 080 known for its refined and premium taste with subtle fruity and floral notes with well-balanced acidity makes for a smooth drink.
