SILK & SPICE ROAD SERIES

The Silk Road was a network of trade routes connecting China and the Far East with the Middle East, Africa and Europe. Although it's been nearly 600 years since the Silk Road has been used for international trade, the routes had a lasting impact on commerce, culture and history that resonates even today. Virgil Kahn, Head Chef at Indochine, crafts dishes inspired by the Silk Road and its modernized travel connection across the world, where flavours come alive. We invite you to travel the Silk Road with us, fill your passport with 6 stamps and enjoy a meal on us.
